20 Ibis Ct, Rainbow Beach

Multi-level living, ocean views, spa and sauna

From the moment you enter the olive-lined driveway, you will feel instantly relaxed and at home at this beach house.

The main entry welcomes you into this stunning home and provides a large living space on the ground floor. A third bedroom, laundry and loads of storage complete this level.

Ascend the beautiful staircase to the second level of the home which boasts open plan living, modern kitchen, dining area and living room with a large fireplace. Multiple decks on this floor encourage indoor/outdoor living.

The master bedroom features a parent's retreat living space, walk through robe and ensuite whilst the second bedroom has a two-way bathroom and access to more deck space.

The third level of the home is a mezzanine level offering an additional living area which flows out onto another deck with water views. The spa and sauna are also on this top floor which provides an incredible entertaining and relaxation space.

The pièce de resistance of this amazing, architecturally designed home is the roof top deck which boasts amazing ocean views all the way across to Double Island Point.

There is nothing between you and the ocean other than trees and sand.
